

FAQ:

Where do I check in?:

All Feisers will check in to receive their packet at the entry to the Forum building. There is one packet per family per day

What's in my packet?

2 Adult entry tickets Dancers get in free and do NOT need a ticket
Stage Assignment
Competitor Numbers
Map of the building

Who Needs a Ticket?

Anyone who is not a dancer will need a ticket to enter the grounds. This includes siblings, friends, and other relatives.

2 adult entry tickets are included in your registration.

Can I Pick up BOTH packets on Saturday?

No. This is to ensure against the loss of tickets, competition numbers, and other information for the families as these are non-refundable and will not be reprinted if lost.

Is there parking available?

Yes there is paid parking available on site.

I am volunteering how do I check in and receive my extra ticket?

Entry to the forum building, same as dancer check in.

You will initial that you have checked in and will receive your extra ticket there.

Is there a used dress sale area?

Yes, near the camping room there are several dress racks to assist in facilitating used dress sales

Is there camping at or near the stages?

No. This is to ensure that all walkways remain clear and all seating is available for competitors and spectators only. There is a large designated camping area available for use.

Oops! I have extra people with me and not enough tickets, how do I purchase additional tickets?

There will be tickets available for purchase on the grounds or ahead of time on our website. To ensure speed when checking in and entering the games, we recommend purchasing your tickets ahead of time on our website.

I am only coming to watch the feis and not the games, do I need a ticket?

YES! Entry into the feis is also entering the grounds for our games. The grounds are then open to you whether you decide to participate in the games or stay in the Feis area. We encourage all to come and see some of the amazing activities that are available to you.
